LIKE RATS IN A TRAP.

Laborers Caught In a Burning Water-works Crib Out in the Lake.

A DOZEN MEET A HORRIBLE FATE.

Five Were Roasted Alive and the Remainder Suffocated and Drowned—Distressing Disaster at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Aug. 14.—Fire at an early hour destroyed a temporary water works crib two miles out in the lake, resulting in the death of at least 10 men, while two others were probably fatally injured. In addition to a large number of workmen who were in the crib, 11 others were at work in the tunnel leading from it 200 feet below at the bottom of the lake. As air which was pumped from the crib to supply the men working in the tunnel was cut off as a result of its destruction, it was at first supposed that these men had all perished. Subsequently, however, nine of the men in the tunnel were rescued after heroic work upon the part of their fellow workmen. It is said that two men are still in the tunnel, but those rescued state that one of these, Victor Kaufman of Canton, is dead.

Following is a list of dead and injured: John Martina, drowned; Mike Snyder, drowned; Arthur Hasty, drowned; Victor Kaufman, Canton, suffocated; five men, names unknown, burned to death. John Lee, broken back; O. Braddock, frightfully burned.

Fire and harbor tugs with rescuing parties on board reached the crib soon after the flames broke out, but when they arrived there, the structure was a seething mass of flames and all hope of saving it was abandoned. Men could be distinguished swimming or floating in the water shouting for help. Others were clinging to ropes which they had hitched or tied to the rafters, but the flames were burning the ropes away, while the men were standing and one by one they were falling into the lake. The tugs circled around the burning crib, picking up men from the water, and meantime playing heavy streams upon the flames.

After an hour's hard work, the flames were diminished enough so that the firemen could climb up the charred steps and fight the fire from the interior. Then the horror of the calamity was first realized. Everything was a total wreck. While the firemen were pouring water on the flames there was a roaring furnace beneath which could not be reached. But the firemen clung to their places and fought every inch of the way until the fire was under control. After two hours of hard work five charred human bodies were found burned beyond recognition. Two were in the attitude of prayer. They must have been awakened by the fire but could not escape. They were caught like rats in a trap.

Cause of the Disaster.

A few minutes before 3 a. m. a boiler in the crib exploded with terrific force. One gang of eight men was at work in the tunnel beneath the lake and two more gangs were asleep in the crib at the time. As soon as the explosion occurred one of the gangs above the lake started down the elevator to get the gang underneath out, but while on the way down the power operating the elevator gave out and they were cut off with their comrades.

In a few minutes the remainder of the party in the crib discovered that their position was extremely critical. About 21 men and one woman were hemmed in by the burning crib, which was of wood, and was filled with inflammable material. Too terrified to dress, they were forced back step by step to the water's edge by the advancing fire. Smoke enveloped them, and their only hope seemed the water of the lake. They were without boats and three miles from shore and had no hope of aid reaching them. Soon the flames forced them to the water, and gathering any piece of wreckage possible, jumped into the lake. There was not even a ledge around the crib for the imperiled people to cling to, and they were floating near the burning structure, screaming for help when the tug Sprinkle reached the scene. The tug was in the harbor when the fire was first seen, and though it went at full speed to the burning structure, the building had burned to the water's level when it reached there.

Captain H. Thorne of the tug J. R. Sprinkle stated that he found the lake in the vicinity of the fire swarming with men. They were all naked and were swimming about in the water almost exhausted. He says that he saw at least one man throw up his hands in despair and sink into a watery grave. Captain Thorne and his crew rescued 18 of the men and brought them to Cleveland. Daniel Hartman was one of those brought in on the Sprinkle. He said that the first intimation of anything wrong was the terrific explosion which awakened him and the others. "A fearful panic followed," he said, "and many of the men rushed from their beds and threw themselves into the lake. I ran from my bunk and looked around and soon saw that the crib was doomed. The fire spread like lightning and there was hardly any use fighting it. It soon got too warm for me and I jumped into the water."

AN ARTISTIC SUCCESS.

A Large Audience, Delighted With the Entertainment at Opera House Last Night.

An appreciative audience filled the Washington Opera House last evening, to be entertained by what proved to be one of the most enjoyable occasions that has taken place in Maysville for many days.

The program was good from beginning to end and opened with a bright overture by Miss Berry and Mr. Bullett, who, as always, found warm applause and great appreciation accorded them.

The first soloist was Mrs. Harriet Mitchell who sang in her usual finished style. Her selection, "Lord, We Praise Thee," was certainly well calculated to show the excellent capabilities of her voice. She was followed by Miss Murphy, whose recitation of "Buzz-saw Girl" was a happy introduction to her audience, it being a bright, catchy sketch of a talkative maiden, who on this occasion had a whole household of interested listeners. Miss Murphy is an artist of no ordinary ability and during the course of the evening gave a number of selections, any one of which showed her thoroughly skilled in pitching her voice to suit the character to be portrayed and bringing out the real spirit of the sketch. She was recalled time and again.

Mr. G. Morgan Stricklett had already won the Maysville public when he appeared here several weeks since, and his return last evening was the occasion of a cordial welcome and spontaneous applause. He showed his appreciation by responding most generously to his many encores with some new and beautiful ballads, his rendition of which was certainly above criticism.

Miss Charles' rich contralto voice and happy stage presence have already made a place for her in the hearts of Maysville people, and when she sang for us again last evening she scored another triumph.

After her appearance there was a brief intermission, when the second part of the program was opened by Miss Florence Wadsworth. She sang without leaving the stage three numbers from Carmen, and when one considers the character of this music and the frequent change of time it calls for, it seems a most unusual thing for so young an artist to have attempted and to have been rewarded with the success she met with. Her audience were in sympathy with her and in recalling her, as they did, were rewarded by hearing "My Old Kentucky Home," which Kentuckians never tire of, and which they always greet with enthusiasm.

Other numbers equally good from the artists who had gone before completed the evening's entertainment and every one went home feeling glad that they had come.

DELIBERATE INSULT

To Citizens of Kentucky, Whether Intended or Not.

[Suffolk (Va.) Spe. New York World.]

The Society for the Suppression of Spurious Titles was organized here to-night. Its members are among the most influential people in the city, including the Mayor. Here are some extracts from the constitution adopted:

"Believing that the indiscriminate bestowal of titles, regardless of the recipient's real claim to the distinction suggested by the appellation, is being carried much too far in this and other communities, this society is organized with a view to the elimination of such titles except in cases where the persons so addressed can prove a bonafide right to have his name prefixed by a word suggesting distinction.

"We believe that the miscellaneous application of spurious titles is degrading to those worthy of such honors and cheapens the value of such distinctions, which should be bestowed only upon those whose service, accomplishments or attainments have justified fame's notice.

"Seemingly all privates were killed in the Civil war, and there are left few officers with a lower rank than Colonel. This society presumes that all persons should be addressed as plain 'Mr.' unless the contrary be shown."

EAST LIMESTONE, Aug. 13th.—Quite a number from this neighborhood attended the funeral services at Stewart's Chapel August 4th of Miss Anna Lou Myers, aged nineteen years, only daughter of Ezekiel and Miriam Myers, whose death occurred at their home near Tollesboro August 2nd, after a lingering illness, of stomach trouble. The end was not unexpected by her friends and devoted parents and brothers, who had so long and faithfully watched at her bedside. She bore her suffering with patient endurance and awaited the final summons with sweet resignation, constantly pleading with her young brothers to remember our Savior and his precious promises, and to meet her in Heaven. She possessed many amiable qualities, always gentle, loving and patient, and was indeed a beautiful type of the Christian character, a general favorite with her many friends and acquaintances. The funeral obsequies were conducted by Rev. Stratton, his subject being "Victory Over Death." Many were present to mingle their sympathy with the sorrowing family. Several beautiful pieces selected by Miss Anna were sung at her request by G. W. Harding and others, among them "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." The casket, covered with many beautiful floral tributes, was borne to the Maysville Cemetery, where the remains were consigned to their last resting place by the side of other loved ones not long since departed. She is survived by her parents and four brothers who have the sincere sympathy in their sorrow of their friends in this neighborhood where the family formerly resided.

Nothing to Deboe's Credit.

[Chicago Tribune, Rep.]

Senator Deboe's victory is nothing to his credit. The ousting of a widow with ten children clinging to her skirts is rather small business for a United States Senator and a "Kentucky gentleman." It is carrying spoils politics entirely too far. Kentucky Republicans have no cause to be proud of Senator Deboe. He would have done better to leave the brave little woman in possession of her meager support, even though she could not vote and was not a member of the Henry County Republican Committee.

The total stocks of tobacco on all Western markets August 1st were 38,535 hogsheds, which, compared with the same time last year, shows a decrease of 7,812 hogsheds, as on August 1, 1900, the stocks amounted to 46,347 hogsheds.

H. B. Cushman, of Flemingsburg, has bought L. T. Geobke's purchase of tobacco, 30,000 pounds, at Mt. Carmel.

BOTH TIRED OF STRIFE

Rumors of a Settlement of the Steel Strike Again Revived.

THE DAY RICH IN DEVELOPMENTS.

Strikers and the Trust Each Score Heavily, Several Mills Being Closed and Opened—McKeesport Tied Up Tight.

Pittsburg, Aug. 14.—Rumors of a settlement of the steel strike are again being revived, but confirmation of them at any source is impossible. It is related circumstantially that the Amalgamated knows it cannot win, that the United States Steel corporation fears the loss of both skilled men and orders to the independent mills and that they are close to terms which would be satisfactory to both.

Pittsburg, Aug. 14.—Both sides made material gains in the great strike being waged against the United States Steel corporation by the Amalgamated association. The remaining force at the plant of the National tube works at McKeesport joined the strikers and that great plant is now practically silent. The strikers also made some gains among the men at the lower union mill of the Carnegie company in Pittsburg, but there is a direct conflict in the claims made by either side as to the exact condition of that plant. The strikers say they will force it to close down, while the managers insist they have not been hurt and that the plant will be kept moving. The material gains of the manufacturers were at the Painters mill in this city and the Crescent mill of the American Tin Plate company.

At the former a surprise was sprung on the strikers and two mills, one with a crew of old employees, who struck on first order, were going before it was known that any such move was contemplated. It is said that another crew will be put on shortly and that the managers assert that many of their old men will come back. There was no disorder at the mill and it is said that the old employees will not do picket duty for fear of being black-listed in the future. The American Tin Plate officials say they have half the mills in the Crescent plant moving. As the result of the attempt by the American Tin Plate company to start its Crescent works at Cleveland in 24 hours half the mills were put in successful operation, claim the officials, manned largely by former workmen who have seceded from the Amalgamated association, stating their belief that the officers of the association had done wrong in violating their written agreement with the company. The start at Cleveland having succeeded, the company will in a short time make a similar move elsewhere.

The situation can be generally summarized as follows: In round numbers the last strike order by President Shaffer has been obeyed by 20,000 men, and the total number of men who struck or were rendered idle by all three orders is now placed at 65,000 men. The manufacturers continue to hold their ground at Chicago, Joliet, Bayview, Youngstown, Columbus, the Kiskiminetas Valley and in all of the Carnegie plants except the lower union mill in Pittsburg.

The steel manager also count the refusal of the furnace men of the Mahoning and Shanango valleys to strike as a victory. The steel corporation also scored in reopening two mills of the Painter plant at Pittsburg and in forcing the opening of the Crescent tin plant at Cleveland. The strikers scored heavily at McKeesport when nearly 3,000 men and boys employed by the National Tube company joined forces with the strikers and tied the plant up. They claim to have further extended their organization among the men of the Carnegie mills in this city and say that before the end of the week they will have the works stopped. They also expect to completely close down everything in the Wheeling district.

Strikers Displaced.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Amid the hooting and jeering of a hundred or more union pickets stationed around the Frazer and Chalmers plant, 29 non-union men were safely landed inside the works of that company to take the places of the union men out on strike. The men were brought from the east and were conveyed to their destination in two large busses under the escort of a squad of police. A crowd of strikers was assembled around the plant, but beyond jeering they made no demonstrations.

Omaha, Aug. 14.—General John C. Bates assumed command of the department of the Missouri, relieving General Merriam, who goes to the command of the department of Colorado.

WEAVERS in the mills at Fall River, Mass., have been notified of a reduction of 14 per cent. in their wages, to go into effect September 3rd. More of McKinley "prosperity."

WELL! Maybe this didn't jar many of the Republicans of Louisville. C. G. Vogt, a prominent Republican whom Sapp has been trying to run for Mayor, is out in an interview stating that he would not only not become a candidate, but would not accept the nomination were it tendered him. And he went further. He said that instead of becoming the Republican candidate or nominee, he has made up his mind to vote and work for Grainger, the Democratic nominee.

THE steel trust has been notified by Ohio's Secretary of State that it has never complied with the law and is not authorized to do business in the Buckeye State. The combine has ignored the law heretofore, but the authorities seem disposed to make the magnates toe the mark. Of course, they will at once withdraw their millions of capital from Ohio and let the State go to the dogs. Such a thing as complying with the law is not to be considered for a moment.

CROPS IN NORTHWEST.

Big Yield of Wheat in Minnesota and North Dakota—Harvest Now in Progress.

[Exchange.]
 Harvesting the wheat crop in Minnesota and North Dakota is in full progress. This is about ten days ahead of the usual date. The crop is all made, and with dry weather for thirty days there will not only be the largest crop ever harvested in the spring wheat region, but one of the best in quality. It will take thirty days longer to mature the vast flax crop of these States.

Conservative judges put the crop of Minnesota and the two Dakotas at not less than 200,000,000 bushels, worth today more than $100,000,000 on the farm. There are 2,000,000 persons in the three States, and there are other crops than wheat. There are 18,000,000 acres in the three States, and the average yield per acre is expected to be high.

There have been a few sections of the Red River valley where the crop has been drowned out, but hail has been a triding disaster, and hot winds have done no damage.

The Investment Company has taken its place as a permanent institution, and the prejudices that obstructed its early growth are disappearing in the light of experience in its workings. For many months the people of Mason County have been sending over $1,000 a month to be invested in companies at Lexington and other places. Now that we have a company at home whose plan is the latest and most approved, and whose managers are personally known to you as men of standing and integrity, why not put your investment with them? Patronize your home institution and your city and county will develop.

There is still a lingering prejudice in the minds of many people against the investment business. This arises largely from lack of information as to the real principles upon which the business is founded.

Our older citizens remember when the first building association was started in Maysville. There was a great deal of opposition to it, but it lived down the prejudice and was the forerunner of the three prosperous institutions of that kind in Maysville. The building association depends for its success entirely upon co-operation.

Life insurance was a rarity in Maysville in the preceding generation, but now it is difficult to find a man entirely uninsured, who is healthy enough to stand a medical examination.

Life insurance is run upon precisely the same principles as an investment company, but pays the profits to the dead man's estate. Our plan is open to the sick and feeble to whom life insurance is barred, as well as to the healthy and strong. Don't let prejudice stand in your way because the business is unfamiliar to you, but investigate for yourself, and you, like others, will be convinced. Call at our office or write to the

CONVERSATION

Was overheard last Monday night as a mau was passing the

5 and 10c. Store

Just as the town clock was striking fifteen minutes past 2. Everything was still as death. There was a mighty uproar in the tin department when a tin cup raised shrieking, trembling and exclaiming that their kind was to be sold 3 for 5c. Roastingly the table cloth was heard in a loud voice saying, I am 1½ yards wide and thirty-six inches long and of the finest grade and I am to be sold for only 15c. Carpet tacks were next heard from. There are 500 of us and our points are of sharpened steel and our heads can be hammered for only 3c. Rubber collars were heard from next, in a low voice saying, "You can launder me in a bowl with soap and water and I will go around your rubber neck for only 25 cents." Silver tea spoons were heard in a silver tongue, "There are only six of us, just one half dozen; we shine and blue beautiful to behold. We are guaranteed to last a lifetime. We are to be sacrificed for only 50c. There was a great uproar heard in rug, straw matting, china, glass, hosiery, linen and goods furnishing goods department. This mau tir-toed away silently, but knowingly, that on account of space we could not tell you who; they had to say, but the goods talk for themselves at the 5 and 10 cent store, 45 West second St., Maysville, Ky.

DROUTH BROKEN.

This Section Blessed With a Fine Rain Last Night.

The long drouth in this section is ended at last. A fine rain fell last night, and it seems to have been a general one.

The sky was overcast with heavy clouds nearly all day Wednesday, and there was a light sprinkle shortly after 1 p. m. But it was nearly 5 o'clock in the afternoon before old Jupiter Pluvius got down to business. The rain fell steadily all through the night and up to 8 o'clock this morning. At 7 a. m. the precipitation amounted to .64 of an inch.

The crops and grass will receive the full benefit of the rain as it fell so gradually it was all absorbed by the parched ground. It barely started the streams to running.

Bear in mind that the Elks Fair at Maysville, September 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, will give the biggest return for 25 cents ever obtained in the Ohio valley. Half fare on all railroads.

Suit has been filed in the Fleming Circuit Court by Lula Ingram against James P. Ingram for divorce. She states in her petition that they were married on the 29th of March, 1894, and that by reason of his cruelty and inhuman treatment she has been compelled to leave him. She also states in her suit that her husband has taken by violence and force their two children and placed them in the charge of his sister at Poplar Plains. She asks that the court adjudge her the care, custody and control of the children. Mr. Ingram resides in Maysville and some time ago sued his wife for divorce, and the case is still pending.

The court house at Richmond is to be improved at a cost of $11,500.

The Kentucky editors have returned from their trip to Salt Lake City.

Positively the best cut yellow poplar shingles on earth. Samples at R. A. Carr's and Limestone Mill, Maysville. Address, D. G. Wilson, Orangeburg, Ky.

Mr. William Marshall, of Mt. Sterling, who is here under treatment by Dr. Taulbee for an injury to the spine, underwent an operation this week and has been doing nicely since then. Dr. Taulbee was assisted in the operation by Dr. Harover.

The administratrix of the late P. H. King has sued the Flemingsburg narrow gauge railroad for $7,500 damages. A few months ago Mr. King and several others were going over the eastern end of the road on a hand car to help at an accident, when a truck with several hands overtook the hand car and Mr. King was thrown under the wheels and died in a few days from the injuries received. The petition alleges that the company was negligent in using the truck and that their track was defective.

Inspector Hines' report on the charges preferred against Dr. Walter A. Lackey, first assistant at the Hopkinsville insane asylum, by Dr. E. B. McCormick, former Superintendent of that institution, is a complete exoneration of Dr. Lackey and Miss Mary Settle. Inspector Hines says that Dr. McCormick's intentions were malicious and were for the purpose of embarrassing the State Administration. The report is indorsed by Gov. Beckham.

Speaking of the Confederate reunion at Lexington Wednesday, the Leader says: "So far as could be learned the oldest soldier that registered was Dr. A. H. Wall, of Maysville, who is aged ninety-one. He is Commander of the Maysville Camp of Confederate Veterans and was a member of Gano's Cavalry Regiment in Gen. John H. Morgan's division."

Astounded the Editor.
Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well,—can eat anything. It's a great tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

PTOMAIN POISONING.

A Little Son of Mr. B. Zell Died Last Evening After a Brief Illness.

A case of ptomaine poisoning resulting fatally occurred Wednesday in the family of Mr. B. Zell of East Front street.

Isaac, the eight-year-old son of Mr. Zell, was taken ill early Wednesday morning. Dr. Harover was summoned and found symptoms of poisoning from ptomaines. The child grew worse during the day and at 4 o'clock was seized with convulsions, dying at 7:30 o'clock. It is thought the poisoning was caused by eating some meat.

The remains were taken to Cincinnati early this morning where the funeral was conducted at 9 o'clock in the Jewish synagogue.

Wood is the General Traveling Agent. All orders left at the office, 112 Sutton street, will receive prompt attention.

They Struck it Rich.

It was a grand thing for this community that such an enterprising firm as J. Jas. Wood & Son secured the agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, the wonderful remedy that has startled the world by its marvelous cures. The furor of enthusiasm over it has boomed their business, as the demand for it is immense. A Feast of Bargains!

Our midsummer Clearance Sale will begin next Wednesday, Aug. 7th. All of our former Clearance Sales will pale into insignificance compared to this. Between now and Tuesday we will go through our entire stock of Spring and Summer Clothing and every suit and garment will be marked down 25 per cent. from regular price. Not a single garment will escape the knife. It is needless for us to tell you about qualities.

ONLY KIND WE SELL!

Our people don't want cheap stuff, they have been tempted again and again and doubtless will be again, with Clothing that looks awful cheap in newspaper advertisements, but when weighed it invariably was found wanting.

Our Clearance Sale will continue until we have sold down the stock low enough to give us room for our New Fall Goods, which will soon begin to come in.

All goods sold at the reduced price MUST be paid for when taken away or ordered sent home. Please do not embarrass us by asking credit during this sale.
